Practical Meaning of Jainism

Chapter - 2...A Vasakshep

What is Vasakshep ?

When Tirthankar Bhagwan blesses his disciples, Tirthankar puts Divine Powder on the head of the disciples given by King Indra and gives special blessings to establish a Chaturvidh Sangh, in the form of a pilgrimage. In the same way in the present times, all the Gurus who are part of the Shwetambar Moortipujak Sampradaya, bless using the Divine Powder (Sandalwood Powder) by reciting.

THE SURI MANTRA

THE VARDHMAN VIDYA MANTRA AND SOME SPECIAL MANTRAS.

While putting Vasakshep, Guru's blessings are:

"Nittharparagahoh" (नित्थारपारगाहोह)

means, you set free from this materialistic world and attain salvation. The blessings of Guru help us to gain confidence, build courage and bring new energy, new awakening, new strength, new direction and success at work.
